January 2021 Intensive Masters Courses

ALL COURSES WILL BE ONLINE

January 4-8

BST 307 OT Seminar: Disability in the Old Testament
Pre-Requisite BST 103 Intro to OT I

PTH 341 Seminar: Stress, Sabbath, & Spiritual Formation
Pre-Requisite PTH 141 Intro Pastoral Care & Counseling

PTH 343 Spiritual Care in the age of COVID-19
Pre-Requisite PTH 141 Intro Pastoral Care & Counseling

January 11-15

BST 240 Reading Mark for Preaching

CHT 306 Seminar: Science, Faith and Healing in the History of Christianity
This course will be a virtual experience that integrates science and religion using the contemporary research and experience of Caribbean religious scholars, public health experts, pastors and scientists to analyze the role of individual and communal healing from dis-ease and trauma in the life of the Church and society in the age of pandemic. Students will be immersed virtually in the rural and urban life of Jamaica, West Indies. Book costs will be reimbursed. Pre-Requisite CHT 115 History of Global Christianity

PTH 361 Seminar: Spiritual Care in the Age of Black Lives Matter

For further information about the nature of a course or seminar, please contact the instructor for a complete description.